Reflection:

I gave myself that mark because I tried my best to make it perfect and it turned out to be better than I expected. I enjoyed the making of this activity because I find it a great way to end off this unit. The difficulty I had was getting off the clay residue every time I wrote something. It was a pain in the neck because when I tried to remove it the writings will mess up and get smudged. Next time I would use a smaller tool to remove the residue because I used a popsicle stick.
